You guys are too cool

Let me know how the effort for EPANet goes. Maybe there is someone at EPA HQ who can be of more help.

That's correct, I'm guessing you used the number that was displayed on your cell phone for my desk number, [REDACTED] s a random number on the switch, you'd have reached [REDACTED] if you called on that number, and she would yell at me for not telling people they shouldn't call back on that number, eventually you'd get me, but in a round about way.

Does [REDACTED] still work as your cell phone?
